

WVEDC Fall Meeting at Stonewall Resort

The West Virginia Economic Development Council Fall Meeting will be held September 27, 28 & 29 at the Stonewall Resort in Roanoke, WV.

Golf, boating, fishing, hiking and the spa are available all day Sunday with a reception that evening at 7:00PM and a little “bluegrass” music.

Conference agendas will begin Monday morning at 8:30 AM and end on Tuesday at noon. This year’s program will have a variety of focuses including:

- Oil & Gas Development in WV
- Agriculture, a $6 Billion market in our state and its impact on economic development
- The Development toolbox including retail, entrepreneurship, and education
- Our state judicial system and how it impacts you
- Economic Development Careers – How much are you worth?

Please reserve the dates as a full agenda will be out in early August. Reservations can be made by calling the Stonewall Resort, (www.stonewallresort.com) at (304) 269-7400. Be sure to mention that you are attending the WVEDC Fall Conference.
